

Defence Technology Asia 2005 International Conference & Exhibition

Date: 19-21 April 2005
Venue: Suntec, Singapore

Defence Technology Asia (DTA) 2005 International Conferences & Exhibition, the third in the series, was held at Suntec Singapore on 19th – 21st April 2005. The event brought air and naval decision makers, scientists, technologists, and procurement specialists with the leading defence technology manufacturers and suppliers together to discuss the utilisation of the latest defence technology, products and services in air, naval sub-sea and naval surface.

The 3-day event brought together three conferences, namely, Air Defence Technology Asia (ADTA) 2005, Submarine & ASW Asia (SASW) 2005 and Naval Surface Ships Asia (NAVSA) 2005.

DTA 2005 also comprised of an Exhibition, providing exhibitors and visitors the opportunity for networking and discussion on the latest technology and end-user requirements. More than just 3 full days of conference and exhibition, the event offered numerous networking opportunities in informal settings as well.

The event saw strong participation and support from government organisations, military and technology developers from the region and around the world with the presence of 31 sponsors and delegations spanning 11 countries.
